

There are many beautiful things here in downtown Hammonton. The form of the buildings and its fancy and artistic nature is what separates Hammonton from the rest of cities in New Jersey. The blueberry capital of the world is community-friendly, quaint, and tremendously picturesque. Hammonton's old fashion nature is perfect for photo taking or roaming around viewing the shops and sights.

Downtown Hammonton

Bellevue!

It all starts in Bellevue. Bellevue is truly the definition of beauty. It is one of the main streets in Hammonton and it is where basically everything is. Bellevue holds many convenient shops. This suburban city is very astonishing and has many artistic and physical qualities. The beautiful city is so easy to get lost in! This street has many things to offer from pizza to coffee and to shopping centers. Marcellos is a famous landmark here in Bellevue.

3rd Street!

Another spot in Downtown Hammonton is 3rd street. 3rd street is where the historical Saint Joseph church, Saint Joseph Elementary School and the Saint Joseph High School is located.. The church is where we celebrate and express our religion. The church is a symbol of unity and true hospitality and guidance. St. Joseph's Elementary school is where our youth is taught and mentored. It is located before the church. The remarkable building is surrounded with brown bricks. Sculptures of Saint Joseph and our Sacred Mother Mary are on the school's campus. There also is a playground located on the side of the school St. Joseph's High School is located on this street. On 3rd street you can see the front of St. Joseph's and their plaque with the school name and description. . Next landmark is the Hammonton Baptist church.

Central Ave!

Next, downtown has a street named Central Ave. Central Ave has a structural setting to it. Central Avenue contains Hammonton City Hall. Here they decide Hammonton's budget, service and political offices for the city. In front of City Hall, there is a large stone fountain and clock. This spot is a bit Washington DC themed.

Peach Street!

Peach Street is the ideal street for any family. As stated before Hammonton is definitely considered family-oriented. Peach Street gives off a clean, comfy, family-safe, quiet vibe. The community is united and is well kept. Through the seasons, nature continues to beautify the community

The Beauty of Hammonton!

Concluding, Hammonton is a photographer's dream. It is beautiful and has many things to offer. Whether it's Marcello's Pizza, coffee from Casciano's or you want to express your faith and partake in religious affairs at Saint Joseph Church, it is all located in Hammonton. It's all about convenience here and style. This is a remarkable city with features like no other. Hammonton is special. It is art. The buildings reflect an older time and the city is nostalgic. There is a vibe you get from this town. By looking at this town, there is something you can feel and express just through seeing pictures.

